Re: Notice of Violation for the M/S Island Princess; August 2008 Cruise Ship
General Permit Violation; CATS Enforcement # 08-0676-40-7156

Dear Mr. Wright:

The Department of Environmental Conservation is writing this letter to transmit Notice of Violation (NOV) #08-0676-40-7156. The August Discharge Monitoring Report (DMR) for this vessel indicates that the interim effluent limit in the Large Commercial Passenger Vessel Wastewater Discharge General Permit number 2007DB0002 was exceeded twice for ammonia.

The Alaska Department of Law may contact you for further enforcement, including settlement of this violation. If you have any questions or comments, please call me at (907) 465-5312.

Sincerely,

Denise Koch
CPVEC Program Manager

NOTICE OF VIOLATION (NOV)

Violation of Large Commercial Passenger Vessel Wastewater Discharge General Permit
(AS 46.03.100, AS 46.03.462)

To:

George Wright
Sr. VP, Marine Operations
Princess Cruises
24200 Magic Mountain Parkway
Santa Clarita, CA 91355-1283

Enforcement Tracking No.: 08-0676-40-7156

File No.: 920.45.022

The Department alleges that the vessel Island Princess did unlawfully discharge wastewater into waters of the state in violation of the effluent limits established in the Large Commercial Passenger Vessel Wastewater Discharge General Permit No. 2007DB0002. (AS 46.03.100, AS 46.03.462)

This Notice of Violation (NOV) is being issued based upon information submitted by the company and summarized below:

Date of Sample	Date of DMR	Parameter	Concentration	Permit Effluent Limit	Monthly Average or Daily Maximum
08/08/2008	August 2008	Ammonia	87 mg/L	80.4 mg/L	Daily Maximum
08/14/2008	August 2008	Ammonia	83 mg/L	80.4 mg/L	Daily Maximum

Penalties for violation of state statutes and regulations can be quite serious. In a civil action, a person who violates or causes or permits to be violated a provision of this permit, may be liable to the State for Substantial monetary damages under AS 46.03.760. Depending on the nature of the violation, you may also be liable for the state's response costs under AS 46.03.822, for spill penalties under AS 46.03.758-759, for administrative penalties under AS 46.03.761, or for other kinds of damages or penalties under other statutes.

In a criminal violation, a person who acts with criminal negligence may be guilty of a Class A misdemeanor. AS 46.03.790. Upon conviction, a defendant who is not an organization may be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding $10,000.00 and/or sentenced to a definite term of imprisonment of not more than one year. Upon conviction, a defendant that is an organization may be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding the greater of $200,000.00 or an amount which is three times the pecuniary damage or loss caused by the defendant to another or property of another. AS 12.55.035. Each day of violation may be considered a separate violation. Alaska laws allow the State to pursue both civil and criminal actions concurrently.

If you believe you have additional information that has not already been submitted to the Department that will be informative to the Department's investigation of the above-described violation(s), please submit it to the undersigned by October 10, 2008. Nothing in this Notice shall be construed as a waiver of the State's authority or as an agreement on the part of the State to forego judicial or administrative enforcement of the above-described violation(s) or to seek recovery of damages, cost and penalties as prescribed by law. In addition, nothing herein shall be construed as a waiver of enforcement for past, present, or future violations not specifically set forth herein.
